Player Statistics: The player appearance statistics in this album refer to league appearances only and therefore do not include appearances in cup, or other competitions. Where data is not available, for example for overseas players whose data is not known by the club, it has been omitted. It is marked in the text by "-". Country flags refer to a player's nationality or the international country he represents and may differ from their country of birth. The featured 'Starting XI' is based on regular team selection. It may, of course, differ from game-to-game and is at the discretion of the club manager.

Country Abbreviations: ARG - Argentina, AUS - Australia, AUT - Austria, BEL - Belgium, BRA - Brazil, BGR - Bulgaria, CMR - Cameroon, CHN - China, COL - Colombia, COG - Congo, CRI - Costa Rica, HRV - Croatia, CZE - Czech Republic, DNK - Denmark, ECU - Ecuador, EGY - Egypt, IRL - Eire, EST - Estonia, FIN - Finland, FRA - France, DEU - Germany, GHA - Ghana, GRC - Greece, GRL - Greenland, GIN - Guinea, NLD - Holland, ISL - Iceland, ISR - Israel, ITA - Italy, CIV - Ivory Coast, JAM - Jamaica, JPN - Japan, LVA - Latvia, MTQ - Martinique, MAR - Morocco, NGA - Nigeria, NOR - Norway, PRY - Paraguay, POL - Poland, PRT - Portugal, QAT - Qatar, ROM - Romania, RUS - Russia, SCO - Scotland, SEN - Senegal, SLE - Sierra Leone, SVK - Slovakia, ZAF - South Africa, ESP - Spain, SUR - Surinam, SWE - Sweden, CHE - Switzerland, TTO - Trinidad & Tobago, TUR - Turkey, GBR - UK, UKR - Ukraine, USA - United States of America, URY - Uruguay, YUG - Yugoslavia.

Statistic Abbreviations: (L) - Loan, APS - Appearances, GLS - Goals Scored, DOB - Date of Birth, POB - Place of Birth, G - Goalkeeper, D - Defender, M - Midfielder, F - Forward. Players on loan at a club are shown with "L" by their career statistics. New Signings appear with "NS" by their career statistics.

Editors Note: The final date for compiling this album was November 1, 2004. All reasonable efforts were made to ensure that the data was accurate at that time. Player transfers and/or managerial changes after that date were, of course, beyond our control.

MERLIN'S OFFICIAL PREMIER LEAGUE 05 STICKER COLLECTION

Welcome collectors and fans, to the 2004/05 Barclays Premiership season and the latest official Premier League sticker collection from Merlin.

Whether you're a seasoned supporter or new to the league, you couldn't have joined the action at a better time. Last season, Arsenal earned the title honours with an unprecedented 38-match unbeaten Barclaycard Premiership campaign - a truly awesome achievement from a world-class team.

Incredibly, for 2004/05 the competition looks even tougher. While player changes may have dominated the news, with big-money signings like Didier Drogba, Djibril Cissé, Wayne Rooney and Patrick Kluivert all in the headlines, there have been some significant changes at manager level too. Among the new faces hoping for a successful reign are a number of Europe's finest coaches, including Chelsea's José Mourinho, Rafael Benitez of Liverpool and Jacques Santini at Spurs.

For 2004/05, I am also pleased to see Norwich City, Crystal Palace and West Bromwich Albion added to the Barclays Premiership's fixtures. I hope you and your fans enjoy the campaign and wish you the best of luck for the season ahead.

Indeed, I would like to extend a very warm welcome to all newcomers - players, managers, supporters and collectors.

With so many changes this season, you'll find the new official Premier League sticker collection a great way to keep up with the game. Inside, there is everything you need to know about the competition, the teams and the players shooting for glory.

So, for Barclays Premiership fans old and new, Merlin's Official Premier League 05 Sticker Collection is the best way to enjoy what promises to be a fantastic season of football.

THE TEAM
"There is so much talent in this team. We know each other well now and you can see it on the pitch. We will keep trying to get better."

Arsène Wenger

the manager

The Barclays Premiership's most successful foreign manager, Arsène Wenger has raised the benchmark in English football management. Undefeated during the 2003/04 Barclaycard Premiership campaign, Wenger's all-conquering Arsenal side will be looking to secure back-to-back title wins this season.

key players
Dennis Bergkamp's ability to 'make things happen' is a characteristic also evident in Spanish sensation Jose Antonio Reyes who began the 2004/05 Barclays Premiership campaign in stunning fashion. With the explosive Thierry Henry heading the attack, the Arsenal frontline is among the best in the game.

Olof Mellberg

A rock at the heart of Villa's defence, Olof Mellberg leads his side in a strong and determined fashion. One of the club's most consistent performers, he has made over 100 appearances for the Villans and is a major contributor to the club's re-emergence under David O'Leary. Respected by his team-mates and fellow professionals, Mellberg's numerous 'Man of the Match' displays helped Villa to a superb sixth-place finish in 2003/04 and he has an equally important role to play this season.

THE TEAM

"I'm proud of them (the players) whatever happens. They've surprised everybody. It's a fantastic achievement on their part. There has been a collective spirit, they are marvellous people to deal with."

David O'Leary

the manager

David O'Leary's return to Barclaycard Premiership management coincided with an extremely successful season for Aston Villa Football Club. The Villans' boss will be hoping that exciting signings Carlton Cole and Martin Laursen will help to move the club forward in 2004/05.

After a terrific 2003/04 campaign, David O'Leary will be looking to his young English stars to shine this season. Jlloyd Samuel and Gareth Barry have a great understanding down Villa's left side, while on-loan signing Carlton Cole will want to fulfil his early potential in Villa's attack.

THE TEAM

the manager

Sam Allardyce has transformed the fortunes of Bolton since becoming manager of the Trotters in 1999. Some excellent dealings in the transfer market have helped the club grow in stature with Bolton now looking to improve on last season's impressive seventh-place finish.

"There's still a lot more to achieve at the club and I want to leave a legacy that when people look back on what we've achieved they can do so with a bit of pride and admiration."

Sam Allardyce

starting XI

Jaaskelainen, Hunt, Jaidi, Julio Cesar, N'Gotty, Nolan, Campo, Speed, Okocha, Pedersen, Davies

key players

Bolton have enhanced their squad with some impressive players. Former Real Madrid captain Fernando Hierro is a big-name signing who will add resilience to the side. Elsewhere, Gary Speed brings vital experience and on-loan signing El Hadji Diouf has a key role in attack.

Matt Holland

Matt Holland is a box-to-box midfielder who always works tirelessly for the Addicks. Strong in the tackle and good on the ball, he is often found dispossessing the opposition before setting up attacks for his side. Returning to the Barclaycard Premiership last season, he proved his class as a top-level midfielder, playing in every league fixture and netting six goals in his first season at the club. A crucial member of Alan Curbishley's team, Holland has also developed a strong rapport with the Charlton fans.

THE TEAM

"In the last seven years or so we have had two promotions and now five years in the Premiership - it is fantastic and let's hope it continues."

Alan Curbishley

the manager

Now in his fourteenth season with the Addicks, Alan Curbishley has assembled arguably his strongest squad to date. England internationals Danny Murphy and Francis Jeffers will add further attacking options to Curbishley's well organised side.

key players

After seven seasons with Dutch giants PSV Eindhoven, Dennis Rommedahl joins Charlton Athletic as one of European football's most talented wingers. With the added quality of Danny Murphy in midfield and predatory striker Francis Jeffers, the Addicks' side has a very positive outlook.

CAPTAIN

John Terry

John Terry is now fully established as Chelsea's club captain. His outstanding contribution in central defence helped Chelsea keep a league-best 21 clean sheets last season, earning Terry a deserved place in the PFA Team of the Year. Now under the management of José Mourinho, Terry has continued to improve and now looks a class act at the very highest level. Expect him to push his team-mates hard this season as the club go in search of their first Barclays Premiership title.

CAPTAIN

Tony Popovic

The Australian international was instrumental in securing Palace's return to the top-flight. A cultured central defender, his inspirational performances helped the Eagles fly up the league and gain promotion via the Play-offs. Comfortable with the ball at his feet, his aerial capabilities make him a commanding member of the Palace back-line as well as a serious threat from set-pieces. Iain Dowie will be looking to his captain for inspiration as Palace aim to consolidate their Barclays Premiership status.

THE TEAM

"We will be competitive. I am fully aware that this is a huge task but I do have faith in the players we have got."

Iain Dowie

the manager

Iain Dowie proved himself as a manager with great potential when he steered Crystal Palace to promotion after just six months in charge. A shrewd tactician who knows how to get the best from his players, he will relish the challenge that lies ahead this season.

starting XI

key players

Crystal Palace will be eager to make an impression in the Barclays Premiership this season. With Wayne Routledge and Danny Granville performing on opposite flanks, Andrew Johnson can profit in front of goal and help establish Palace in the top-flight.

CAPTAIN

Alan Stubbs

Born in Liverpool, few players can claim to be more committed to the Everton cause than Alan Stubbs. An excellent central defender with a ferocious drive from dead-ball situations, he is one of the Barclays Premiership's most consistent defenders. A rock at the heart of the Toffees' defence last season, he has carried his excellent form into the 2004/05 campaign. Stubbs also shares the captain's armband with club favourites David Weir and Duncan Ferguson.

CAPTAIN

Lee Clark

Lee Clark was handed the captain's armband last season and the competitive midfielder led the Cottagers to the club's record league finish of ninth place. His midfield performances epitomise the determination of the team and Chris Coleman will be looking for Clark to inspire Fulham to success this term. Vice-captain Sylvain Legwinski performed admirably in Clark's injury-forced absence at the start of 2004/05.

THE TEAM
"This season we need a full house at the Cottage, a good atmosphere and we need to show the same resolve on the pitch as we did last year."

Chris Coleman

the manager

Chris Coleman enjoyed a successful 2003/04 as manager of Fulham, guiding the West London side to their highest ever league finish in ninth spot. New signings like Cole, Diop, Jensen and Radzinski have added to Coleman's attacking options as he looks to build on last season's success.

key players
Senegalese international Papa Bouba Diop brings bite and flair to the Fulham midfield. A strong tackler with excellent distribution skills, he allows Steed Malbranque to shine going forward. With over 200 league goals, new signing Andrew Cole adds firepower to the Fulham attack.

CAPTAIN

Steven Gerrard

A life long Red, Steven Gerrard's influence on the team is nothing short of sensational. He was the heartbeat of the side last season, producing 'Man of the Match' performances on many occasions and scoring four league goals along the way. The all-action midfielder began 2004/05 in similarly explosive fashion, netting two goals in his first four Barclays Premiership games. With his passion, commitment and ability, there are few captains quite as influential.

THE TEAM

"The message to the fans is the same as to the players - we have to work hard and have the good mentality that there has always been at Liverpool. Then who knows what we can achieve?"

Rafael Benitez

the manager

Rafael Benitez joined Liverpool as one of the most respected managers in European football having guided Valencia to La Liga and UEFA Cup success last season. Liverpool fans will be hoping that he continues his winning ways as the club bid to challenge for major honours this season.

starting XI

key players
Xabi Alonso exploded onto the Barclays Premiership scene with some breathtaking performances. Technically gifted, he possesses fantastic passing ability that springs attacks for fellow countryman Luis Garcia and French international Djibril Cissé to profit from. All have key roles in Liverpool's new-look side.

Sylvain Distin

Now in his second season as club captain, Sylvain Distin's on-field presence is a major bonus for Kevin Keegan's side. Having worn the captain's armband in all 38 Barclaycard Premiership games last season, his role as skipper is reward for the Frenchman's desire and unquestionable commitment. A player who wears his heart on his sleeve, Distin continues to grow in his role with each passing game.

THE TEAM

"Naturally success breeds expectation and we are now expected to achieve - that is the nature of football and our supporters have every right to expect that."

Steve McClaren

the manager

Renowned for his excellent coaching skills, Steve McClaren will be looking to build upon last season's League Cup success. Having made a number of exciting signings during the close season, he will be hopeful of adding more silverware to the trophy cabinet in 2004/05.

key players

Middlesbrough have many options going forward. Mark Viduka and Jimmy Floyd Hasselbaink are among the league's most lethal partnerships, while Bolo Zenden assists from midfield. One of the club's outstanding performers, Zenden will look to create chances for the front pair.

CAPTAIN

Alan Shearer

As captain of his hometown club, Alan Shearer proudly gives his all for Newcastle United. Idolised by the Toon Army and well-respected in the game, he is one of the most inspirational captains the Barclays Premiership has ever seen. Deadly in front of goal, strong in the air and vastly experienced, he ended the 2003/04 campaign with an amazing record of 131 goals in just 243 league games for the Magpies.

THE TEAM

"It is one of the best-supported clubs and everything is in place for it to be successful. I hope I can be the one that brings success to the fans. The prospect of trying to help them achieve their goals is a very exciting one."

Graeme Souness

the manager

Graeme Souness became manager of Newcastle United in September 2004. He will relish the opportunity of shaping a highly talented squad as The Magpies look to challenge for major honours in Souness' first season with the Tyneside club.

starting XI
Stephen Carr is an excellent signing for Newcastle United, offering great defensive and attacking options down the right-hand side. With Nicky Butt adding stability to the Newcastle midfield, Dutch striker Patrick Kluivert is capable of shooting the club to glory this season.

Craig Fleming

CAPTAIN

CAPTAIN

Craig Fleming

A model of consistency, Fleming has made over 250 league appearances for the Canaries. Ever-present for last season's First Division Champions, Craig's fantastic performances at the heart of the Norwich defence earned him the club's 'Player of the Season' award. Commanding in the air and strong in a challenge, Nigel Worthington will be hoping Fleming's winning desire will influence his team-mates as Norwich compete against the cream of English football this season.

Arjan De Zeeuw

Outstanding at the heart of Pompey's defence, De Zeeuw played in all but two Barclaycard Premiership fixtures last season. His central defensive partnership with Dejan Stefanovic was key to the club's campaign with Pompey recording impressive clean sheets and home victories over Bolton, Tottenham, Southampton and Manchester United. His towering performances saw him named as Portsmouth's 2003/04 Player of the Season before being chosen as club captain for 2004/05.

CAPTAIN

Jamie Redknapp

In a young Spurs side, Redknapp's seniority is well respected by his team-mates and makes him a deserved captain. With a wealth of Premiership experience to call upon, he commands the team with authority and leads by example with cultured displays at the heart of midfield.
With many new faces at the club, Redknapp's ability to organise the side will be crucial throughout Tottenham's 2004/05 Barclays Premiership campaign.

CAPTAIN

Darren Purse

Darren Purse joined West Brom from Birmingham City and was soon appointed captain of the team. Brave and strong in the tackle, Purse is one of the Barclays Premiership's most committed central defenders. Indeed, it is these qualities that are an inspiration to his team-mates and will be vital for West Brom as they look to consolidate their place in the Barclays Premiership this season.

THE TEAM

"I'm just delighted to be back involved with the Albion. After all these years, it's great to return to the club when it's got a sound structure."

Bryan Robson

the manager

Bryan Robson returned to The Hawthorns as club manager in November 2004. A natural leader, his signing is a major boost to the club and he will be looking to his players to embody the same desire and determination that he showed as a world-class player. Robson will relish the opportunity to establish the Baggies in the Barclays Premiership.

starting XI
key players

West Brom have added proven Premiership quality to their squad. Jonathan Greening provides balance to the Baggies' midfield and former Arsenal striker, Kanu, brings vital experience to the side. His partnership with Robert Earnshaw will be key to West Brom's attack.
